1 Information on how to enter, scoring and prizes forms part of these Terms & Conditions of Entry. These Terms and Conditions of Entry serve as separate Terms and Conditions of Entry for the Promotions being conducted for each of the Codes referred to herein where such a Promotion is conducted by and subject to the Terms and Conditions of a Third Party Promoter Website. Entries and Participants not complying with these Terms & Conditions of Entry are ineligible and the Promoter reserves its absolute right to disqualify any Participant from the Promotion if any entries do not comply with these Terms & Conditions of Entry. Entry into any Promotion is deemed to constitute acceptance of these Terms & Conditions of Entry.

2 In these Terms & Conditions of Entry, unless the contrary intention appears, the following words and phrases have the meanings set out opposite them:

"Total Margin" means the sum of the Weekly Margins for all Rounds to date in a given Season for a particular Participant. Participants with a lower Total Margin will be ranked higher than those with a higher Total Margin, subject to conditions 13 and 14;

"Away Team" means the team that is listed by the sporting code as playing away from their home ground. If the Code does not nominate an Away Team, the Away Team will be nominated at the discretion of the Promoter and will be posted on the website. An away team may not be nominated for finals Rounds if available.

"Code" means an official series of Matches for a particular sporting.

"Round Margin" means the number of points between the margin entered by the Participant for the team they tip to win in a Margin Game and the actual margin for that team in the Margin Game. The Weekly Margin will be calculated depending on whether the Participant has tipped the winning team for the Margin Game. If the Participant has tipped the winning team for the Margin Game, the Weekly Margin will equal the difference between the actual margin and the margin entered by the eligible Participant. If the Participant tipped the losing team, the Weekly Margin will equal the actual margin plus the margin entered by the Participant. Participants with a lower Weekly Margin will be ranked higher than those with a higher Weekly Margin, subject to conditions 13 and 14;

"Margin Game" means the Match selected by the Promoter in a given Round for which Participants are required to select the winning margin;

"Match" means a single game conducted by the relevant Code, between member teams of that Code, in a Season;

A Participant may only register their own personal details for individual participation in the Promotion. Each registered Participant may only place one set of tips per Round in each Code/Season. If there is a dispute as to the identity of an applicant or Participant, the Promoter reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to determine their identity.

5 Entry into the competition is free for all eligible Participants.

6 Entry into the Promotion is considered to occur when a Participant submits one or more tip(s) for any of the Matches available for any Round.

7 The Promoter, however, reserves the right not to accept registration for any Participant if the registration contains anything slanderous or defamatory or is otherwise unsightly in any way, as determined by the Promoter in its absolute discretion. Likewise, the Participant’s participation in the Promotion can be withdrawn due to unsightly conduct during the course of the Promotion, or after the Promotion has ended but before the prizes have been awarded, at the Promoter’s absolute discretion.

   b) login to the FootyTip Web Site (http://www.footytips.com.au/) with their username and password for an existing registration;
and join the Classic Funding Group Footy Tipping Competition

9 For each Round, each Participant must then make a selection of the teams the Participant tips to win and the margins by which they expect the winning team’s score to exceed the losing team’s score for each specified Margin Game, and:
   a) submit that entry via the Web Site in the manner and within the time frames set out on the Web Site; or
A draw can only be entered as a Match selection if made available for that Code or Round. A margin is required for the Margin Game in each Round as specified on the Web Site.

10 A Participant may make or change a tip for a given Match in a Round at any time prior to the scheduled starting time of that Match.

11 Participants will be allocated one (1) point towards their Score for each correct selection of a Match. In the event of a Match in a given Round being drawn, cancelled, abandoned, not completed or not played for any reason and/or a Result is not officially declared within three (3) days of the date the Match was originally scheduled to be played, it is treated as a win for both teams competing in that Match for the purposes of calculating each Participant’s Score.

12 A Participant may make or change a tip for a given Match in a Round at any time prior to the scheduled starting time of that Match.

13 If a Participant:
   a) does not submit a tip for a given Match in a Round, then the Participant's tip for that Match will be deemed to be for the Away Team. If no Away Team is allocated for that Code or if the Round is considered a finals Round, then no tip is allocated;
   b) does not submit any tips into the Promotion for a given Round, the Participant's tips for that Round will be deemed to be for the Away Team in each case, and the Participant will be limited to a maximum number of tips for that Round as defined on the website. If no Away Team is allocated for that Code or if the Round is considered a finals Round, then zero tips are allocated;
   c) enters the Promotion after the commencement of the first Round, then the Participant’s tips for those Rounds that have been completed will be deemed to be for the Away Teams, and the Participant will be limited to a maximum of number of tips for each such Round as defined on the website. If no Away Team is allocated for that Code or if the Round is considered a finals Round, then zero tips are allocated.

14 In order to determine the results in each Round, Participants will be ranked:
   a) firstly by their Score, where the highest Score has the highest rank;
   b) then, in the case of a tie, by each Participant's Weekly Margin for the same Round, where the lowest Weekly Margin has the highest rank;
   c) then, in the case of a further tie, by each Participant's Total Margin for the Season to date, where the lowest Total Margin has the highest rank; and
   d) then, in the case of a further tie, the Participant who initially registered to participate (either in a current Season or in a previous Season) has the higher rank.

Weekly rankings for a given Round will be determined no later than 72 hours after the last Match of the particular Round has ended. In the case of Codes where a prize(s) is/are awarded to weekly place winners, the prizes will be awarded to the Participants with the highest rankings, in descending order, based on this clause 12. Prizes (if any) and their values are as set out on the Web Site.
The ranking of end of Season place winners for each Code will be determined:

   e) firstly, by the Participant’s total Score for all Rounds, where the highest Score has the highest rank;
   f) then, in the case of a tie, by each Participant’s Total Margin for the Season, where the lowest Total Margin has the highest rank;
   g) then, where Participants have identical Scores and identical Total Margins, the Participant with the lowest weekly Weekly Margin for the last Round within the Season will be ranked highest; and
   h) in the event of a further tie, the process in paragraph (c) will apply to the Weekly Margin in each preceding Round, in reverse chronological order, until the tie is broken.

End of Season rankings will be determined no later than 72 hours after the final Round of the Season has been completed. In the case of Codes where a prize(s) is/are awarded to Season place winners, the prizes will be awarded to the Participants with the highest rankings, in descending order, based on this clause 14. Prizes (if any) and their values for end of Season place winners are as set out on the Web Site.
